SIR JOHN TAKES OVER REINS OF GOVERNMENT AGAIN

Sir John G M Compton, who was St. Lucia's head of Government from 1964 – 1979 and then from 1982 -1996, is to take over the reins of Government once more following the victory by his party in the country's general elections of Monday 11 December 2006. Sir John's United Workers Party defeated the St. Lucia Labour Party of outgoing Prime Minister Dr. Kenny Asnthony by capturing eleven of the seventeen seat House of assembly. While Dr. Anthony retained the constituency of Vieux Fort South, four of the six SLP ministers who contested the polls lost their places in Parliament. they were Communications Minister Felix Finisterre, Agriculture Minister Ignatius Jean, Social Transformation Minister, Menissa Rambally and Health Minister Damian Graves. Parliamentary Secretary in Agriculture, Cyprian Lansiquot also failed to return to Parliament. For the first time in St. Lucia's history, the general elections were observed by a team from Caricom and the OAS.

Meanwhile, Sir John was due to be sworn as the country's next Prime Minister on the morning of Friday 15th December. A new Government cannot be sworn in after a general elections until the second official count of the ballots is completed and the election writs are returned to the Governor General indication the outcome of the polls. It is understood that this process was completed by Thursday paving the way for the entry of the new Government. It was expected that Sir John's Cabinet would also have been sworn in on Friday.

Sir John's return to power is historic in that after he had been in office for twenty nine years, he had retired from active politics, but broke that retirement after ten years and has ended up in command of the affairs of St. Lucia one more time. Sir John was first in charge of St. Lucia's Government in 1964 as Chief Minister following his departure from the St. Lucia Labour Party in 1963 and the merging of his National Labour Movement (NLM) with the People's Progressive Party (PPP) to form the UWP which won the general elections in 1964. In 1968, he became Premier of St. Lucia when the country became an Associated State of the United Kingdom. On February 22nd, St. Lucia attained its independence from the UK and Sir John was sworn in as the island's first Prime Minister – a position he held for twenty nine years. This edition of Nationwide presents details of the preliminary results of the General Election of 2006 in which the people of St. Lucia opted for the change in Government that brought Sir John back to the Prime Minister's Office in the Greaham Louisy Building at the Waterfront, Conway, Castries.
